

Assumption of the Risk and Waiver of Liability Relating to Coronavirus/COVID-19

The novel coronavirus, COVID-19, has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization. COVID-19 is extremely contagious and is believed to spread mainly from person-to-person contact. As a result, federal, state, and local governments and federal and state health agencies recommend social distancing and have, in many locations, prohibited the congregation of groups of people. Indiana Oil and Gas Association (INOGA) has put in place basic preventative measures to help reduce the spread of COVID-19; however, INOGA cannot guarantee that you will not become infected with COVID-19.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge the contagious nature of COVID-19 and voluntarily assume the risk that I may be exposed to or infected by COVID-19 by attending Indiana Oil and Gas Association's Annual Meeting, Trade Show & Awards Recognition Reception on October 14, 2021 and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, permanent disability, and death. I voluntarily agree to assume all of the foregoing risks and accept sole responsibility for any injury to myself (including, but not limited to, personal injury, disability, and death), illness, damage, loss, claim, liability, or expense, of any kind, that I may experience or incur in connection with my attendance at Indiana Oil and Gas Association's Annual Meeting, Trade Show & Awards Recognition Reception. On my behalf, I hereby release, covenant not to sue, discharge, and hold harmless INOGA, New Harmony Inn Resort and Conference Center, its employees, officers, board members, volunteers, and representatives, of and from the INOGA event, including all liabilities, claims, actions, damages, costs or expenses of any kind arising out of or relating thereto.
