

Date: July 15, 2019

Re: Call for Presentations

For: 2019 Annual Meeting of the Indiana Oil and Gas Association

Where: New Harmony Events Center, New Harmony, Indiana

When: October 10, 2019

The Indiana Oil and Gas Association (INOGA) Annual Meeting will be held in New Harmony, Indiana Thursday, October 10, 2019. We hope to provide our attendees with an interesting program of technical and informational talks.

The Board of Directors of the Indiana Oil and Gas Association would like to invite you to share your ideas on subjects of interest to our membership at INOGA's Annual Meeting.

In addition to technical papers, we also encourage topics related to legal, financial and environmental compliance issues that present opportunities and challenges for our members. You may also want to put together and participate in a timely roundtable discussion.

Please submit a presentation proposal outlining your play concepts, technical advancement, discovery, regulatory or legal case study or practical application by September 1, 2019. Our goal is presentations that are timely, relevant and appropriate. Presentations that are primarily marketing are discouraged.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact me at the email address below or you may call me at 812-457-3174. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Matt Stone

2019 INOGA Annual Meeting Technical Session Coordinator

Email: StoneOGCLLC@gmail.com

Submittal

1. We would really like to have your proposal by September 1, 2019
2. Submit a synopsis of your proposal by email to Matt Stone at StoneOGCLLC@gmail.com
3. Authors whose presentations are accepted will be asked to provide a bio for use in the Program.
4. We may also need a release allowing the publication of your presentation on our website.

Indiana Oil and Gas Association • 1200 Refinery Road • Mt. Vernon, IN 47620